

Eugene E. Middleton, CEAP
Curriculum vitae

440 Marsh Run Road
New Cumberland, PA 17070
(570) 313-3004

Areas of Special Interest

- 1) Intervention upon adults and adolescents in need of addictions treatment
- 2) Training of professionals in effective intervention techniques, impact upon families when living in close proximity to the chemically dependent.
- 3) Design and implementation of Employee Assistance Programs (EAP) for private and government agencies.
- 4) Mediation Services for families and employer/labor agencies in dispute.
- 5) Marketing of addictions inpatient services by private treatment organizations
- 6) Breaking Barriers / Cognitive Restructuring
- 7) Second degree Black Belt- Tang-So-Do Karate

Certifications

Board Registered Interventionist, Level II (BRI II)
Certified Employee Assistance Professional (CEAP)
Certified Alcohol & Drug Counselor (CADC)
Pennsylvania Certification Board Approved Trainer

Education

University of Maryland

BS Business Administration
Major: Marketing

Peace Center Mediation Certification
Kings College

Johnson Institute
Intervention Training

Professional Memberships

Association of Intervention Specialists (AIS)
Association of Employee Assistance Program Practitioners (AEAPP)
Employee Assistance Professionals Association (EAPA)
American Council on Alcoholism (ACA)
American Society for Training and Development
Society of Human Resource Managers
NAADAC Member

Professional Experience

Clear Brook Inc., Wilkes-Barre, PA
1991 -present
Director of Marketing

Interface with government, corporate, and private agencies for delivery of inpatient care services. Conducting of training programs for corporations, universities, and private organizations on the topics of alcoholism and/or chemical dependency care, intervention services, and Employee Assistance Program (EAP) development. Mediation services for families and workplace parties in dispute. Conducting of interventions for employers, families, and health care providers for the purpose of facilitating admission to treatment for adults and adolescents in need of care for alcoholism chemical dependency eating disorders and other mental health issues. Pennsylvania Certification Board approved trainer for providing continuing education credits for professionals working in the field of addictions

Spirit and Associates, New Cumberland, PA / Wilkes-Barre, PA
2000 – Present
Senior Partner

Providing intervention, mediation, counseling, recovery monitoring services for individuals affected by chemical dependency and their family members. An approved trainer by the Pennsylvania Certification Board (PCB) conducting trainings on a wide verity of topics with focus upon intervention, chemical dependency, and cognitive restructuring.

Mediplex of New York, Albany, NY
1989-1991
Director of Regional Services

Responsible for management of all phases of the marketing division. Duties included the implementation and coordination of all marketing activity for Mediplex In-patient treatment facilities located in New York, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey. Intervention/mediation services for families, governmental, and private industry agencies.

Marworth Treatment Centers
1982-1989
Director of Marketing

Responsible for opening operations as a new facility, overall direction and coordination of marketing activities of a two-site operation consisting of 133 inpatient, residential care beds for the treatment of adults and adolescents for alcoholism and chemical dependency. Marworth was opened for operation in 1982. By 1983 it operated at 97% -100% occupancy. By 1984 it was recognized as one of the 100 best treatment centers in the United States.

Development of Employee Assistance Programs for private and governmental organizations requesting service. Conducting and providing intervention / mediation services and training for families, employers, as well as professionals working in the field of addictions treatment.

The Psychiatric Institute. Washington DC
1979-1982
Director of Occupational Health Services

Responsible for the development of new and maintaining of existing referral sources for alcohol, drug, and psychiatric programs for the three Psychiatric Institute Hospitals in the Washington, DC metropolitan area. Worked extensively with private industry and US Government Employee Assistance Program coordinators for the purpose of obtaining continuing referrals to the Psychiatric Institute's hospital programs. Conducting of family / workplace intervention and mediation services for individuals with addictions or in conflict over substantive and unresolved issues.